NEW YORK, June 27 .- Lower prices for American stocks in London was the news brought by cable this morning, and the opening of our market was irregular, but not much lower. The majority of stocks showed only small fractional declines, and shortly improved to net gains of similar fractions. Trading from the start today was dull was unchanged and advanced %. Union Pacific opened % lower, and advanced %.

At the end of half an hour these stocks showed a net gain of % to 1 point, the last being the record of Canaddan Pacific, which reached 160. For some reason there is little of this stock in the market and it responds to demand quicker than any security on the list. Another of the big gains was in St. Louis and San Francisco which rose 1% apparently on the announcement of yesterday that arrangements had been made to pay interest en July 1. The market remained steady and practically inchanged to the close.

The narrow range of the market is seen in the fact that the total sales of the short session yesterday were 207.—100 shares, and today the sales were a little short of that figure. With this restricted business also prices are gradually rising, and all the news there is may be looked upon as bullish. At least the bears are able to make nothing of the situation and aside from a little downward spurt last Monday they have been unable to score during the week.

As remarked two days ago, the market is hung on a peg waiting for political developments within the Democratic party. It is apparent here that the financial district is eminently satisfied with the nomination of Mr. Taft, and that his election in November is confidently expected.

that his election in November is confi-

There is, however, this element of chance, that the Democrats may nominate some one other than the perennial candidate, and in that event the expectations of Wall Street would be upset, and the effect upon the market would be immediate and probably serious. It is this uncertainty that seems to explain the lethargy of the moment. If speculators were certain that it would be Bryan at Denver, a healthy advance in prices would be almost certain next week. Everything, except the naming of the Democratic nominee, is favorable to that end.

The accumulation of money in the New York banks and at other financial and trade centers is attracting the attention of the Street to a large degree. So far as can be seen the needs of the larmers for th moving of crops this year will make no exhaustive drain upon these reserves, and old speculators read with glistening eyes the stories of the Chyman and W. The week-end trips of the steamer St. | 230. Johns, of the fleet of the Washington and Potomac Steamboat Company to the Atlantic City of Washington, Colonial Beach, always have been popular, and large throngs take advantage of them each week to visit the pleasant resort and enjoy a brief respite from the hot streets and brick walls of the city. The steamers will leave here this afternoon at 5:45 o'clock, and again to morrow morning at 8:45 o'clock. Those who do not go down until tomorrow will have several hours to enjoy the many attractions of the resort before sailing for home at 6 p. m. The cottages at the beach are rapidly filling up, and in a short time all the summer residents, those who spend the entire summer there, will be established in their hones. On the steamers going to the beach and the big Colonial Beach hotel is open for the reception of guests. Stops are made at Alexandria by the steamers going and returning.

Daily trips to the resort begin July 3.
